Item 2 Education Background and Business Experience

Ted Stephen Halpern was born in 1968. Mr. Halpern graduated from the University of Maryland, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance. Mr. Halpern has been President of Halpern Financial, Inc. since May of 1993.

Mr. Halpern became a Registered Financial Consultant (RFC) on January 1997. The RFC designation is awarded by the International Association of Registered Financial Consultants (IARFC) to financial advisors who meet high standards of education, experience and integrity. Prior to obtaining the RFC designation, a candidate must attain either a professional designation (i.e. Chartered Life Underwriter, Chartered Financial Consultant and Certified Financial Planner) or have earned a bachelor or graduate degree in financial planning, have four (4) years of experience, pass an examination and subscribe to the IARFC Code of Ethics. The comprehensive RFC examination covers a wide range of subject matter: Principles of Personal Finance, Debt and Cash Flow Management, Employee and Government Benefits, Annuities, Securities, Investments and Asset Allocation, Life, Health and Casualty Insurance, Education and Special Needs Funding, Estate Planning, Survivor Income Needs Analysis, and Retirement Income. In addition, designees must agree to devote a minimum of forty (40) hours per year to continuing professional education in the field of personal finance and professional practice management.

Mr. Halpern became a Accredited Asset Management Specialist (AAMS®) on September 1997. The AAMS® is awarded by the College for Financial Planning to investment professionals who complete its 12-module AAMS® Professional Education Program, pass an examination, commit to a code of ethics and agree to pursue continuing education. Continued use of the AAMS® designation is subject to ongoing renewal requirements. Every two (2) years the designee must renew their right to continue using the AAMS® designation by completing 16 hours of continuing education and reaffirming to abide by the Standards of Professional Conduct.

Mr. Halpern became a Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor (CRPC®) in January 2001. The College of Financial Planning® awards the CRPC® designation awarded to applicants who complete the CRPC® professional education program, pass a final examination, commit to a code of ethics and agree to pursue continuing education. Continued use of the CRPC® designation is subject to ongoing renewal requirements. Every two (2) years the designee must renew their right to continue using the CRPC® designation by completing 16 hours of continuing education and reaffirming to abide by the Standards of Professional Conduct.

Mr. Halpern has been an Accredited Wealth Management AdvisorSM (“AWMA®”) since May 2007. AWMA® is a professional designation administered by the College for Financial Planning. Candidates receive training in investment for retirement, strategies for small business owners, the management of deferred compensation plans, insurance, estate planning, asset protection, and tax reduction issues. Candidates are required to complete a final examination testing these topics. All candidates are subject to ongoing ethics and educational requirements.

Kirsty Jane Peev was born in 1978. Ms. Peev graduated from Edinburgh University, with a Degree of Bachelor of Education Ms. Peev has been employed as a Portfolio Manager of Halpern Financial, Inc. since August 2002.

Ms. Peev has been a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ since January 2008. The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP Board”).

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. Currently, more than 79,000 individuals have obtained CFP® certification in the United States.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must currently satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board’s studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and attain a Bachelor’s Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP Board’s financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning;
- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination, administered in 6 hours, includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one’s ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one’s knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;
- Experience – Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year) or two years of Apprenticeship experience that meets additional requirements; and
- Ethics – Agree to be bound by CFP Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and
- Ethics – Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their clients.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board’s enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.
