

FACTS

WHAT DOES BETTERWEALTH LLC (“BETTERWEALTH”) DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- account balances and transaction history
- assets and risk tolerance

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons BetterWealth chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

WHO WE ARE

Who is providing this notice? BetterWealth LLC (“BetterWealth”)

WHAT WE DO

How does BetterWealth protect my personal information? To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does BetterWealth collect my personal information? We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- seek advice about your investments
- enter into an investment advisory contract
- tell us about your investment or retirement portfolio
- tell us about your investment or retirement earnings
- give us your contact information

We also collect your personal information from other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing? Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Artificial Intelligence We may utilize artificial intelligence (AI) tools internally to assist in summarizing and organizing notes from client meetings to enhance record-keeping and efficiency. These AI tools do not replace human oversight, and all notes are reviewed for accuracy and compliance with regulatory standards. AI is not used to make investment decisions or communicate directly with clients. We conduct thorough due diligence upfront and ongoing assessments of our AI tools' privacy and cybersecurity protocols to ensure they meet standards of security and confidentiality. If you have any questions or wish to opt out of AI-assisted notetaking, please contact Sue Cox at (408) 659-2648 or sue@betterwealth.us.
