IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING THE PROFESSIONAL RECERTIFICATION PROGRAM

To ensure that the credentials our students earn remain current, relevant and serve as an emblem of excellence and expertise with both peers and clients, The College maintains a Professional Recertification Program. All designees who enrolled in The College after June 1989, or those who have voluntarily opted in, are required to participate in the program in order to maintain their right to use the designation(s) they have earned. The College at any time may amend, replace or eliminate the program, its continuing education requirements, and any related fees. Learn more about the Professional Recertification Program, its requirements and the benefits of participation by visiting
