

MCCLARREN FINANCIAL ADVISORS, INC.
FORM CRS RELATIONSHIP SUMMARY v February 6, 2026

INTRODUCTION

McClarren Financial Advisors, Inc. is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) as an investment adviser.

Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ and it is important for you to understand these differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at www.investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational material about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

The investment advisory services we provide are covered under a comprehensive service that combines financial planning and portfolio management services.

In our comprehensive service, we will continuously monitor your investment and provide advice.

In our comprehensive service, we take discretionary authority in your accounts, which allows us to buy and sell investments in your account without asking you in advance. You may impose reasonable restrictions on our discretionary authority, which must be provided to us in writing and accepted by us.

We do not have minimum account sizes or investment amounts.

For more information, please review our disclosure brochure, which is available here.

Ask your financial professional...

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisor service? Why or why not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

We charge a fixed, annual fee for our comprehensive service, in advance, with half of the annual fee due in December and one quarter of the fee due each in April and August. We also charge hourly fees for any additional financial planning work not included in the fixed fee. Hourly fees are due immediately after the service is completed. You will also incur other fees including brokerage fees and commissions, management fees for mutual funds and ETFs, custodian fees, retirement account annual fees, trade ticket charges, or banking fees in connection with an investment account and the securities in the account; we do not receive any of these fees

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying. For more information, please review our disclosure brochure, which is available here.

Ask your financial professional: Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here is an example to help you understand what this means.

We allow our employees to purchase or sell the same securities that may be recommended to and purchased on behalf of Clients. Owning the same securities we recommend (purchase or sell) for you presents a potential conflict of interest that, as fiduciaries, we must disclose to you and mitigate through policies and procedures.

Ask your financial professional: How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

How do your financial professionals make money?

All financial professionals are compensated on a salary basis; their salaries increase as they complete training, examinations, and receive designations as well as based on their tenure and other various professional milestones. Persons with an ownership interest in the firm also receive distributions. No one at the firm – other than as described – is compensated based upon the amount of client assets they service; the time and complexity required to meet a client’s needs; the product sold (i.e., differential compensation); product sales commissions; or revenue the firm earns from the financial professional’s advisory services or recommendations.

Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?

No. Please visit Investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to research us and your financial professionals.

Ask your financial professional: As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history? For what type of conduct?

Who is my primary contact person? Is he or she a representative of an investment adviser or a broker-dealer? Who can I talk to if I have concerns about how this person is treating me?

Summary of Changes

In previous versions of this document, the following sections read in pertinent part as follows:

INTRODUCTION

McClarren Financial Advisors, Inc. is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). [...]

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We offer investment advisory services to retail investors. We provide portfolio management services that we offer on a discretionary or non-discretionary basis according to the authority you provide in an investment advisory agreement with us. When you grant us discretionary authority you provide us with authority to determine the investments to buy and sell in your account on an ongoing basis. You may impose reasonable restrictions on our discretionary authority, which must be provided to us in writing and accepted by us. If you do not provide us with discretion, then we will make recommendations and you will have the final decision regarding whether we purchase or sell investments on your behalf. As part of portfolio management services, we will periodically monitor your investments and provide advice. We require a minimum initial and ongoing account size for portfolio management services.

We also provide financial planning services, in which we provide advice and recommendations regarding your personal investment goals and objectives, personal balance sheet, tax planning, risk management, retirement, education, cash flow and investment planning. When providing financial planning services, we do not monitor your investments and you make the ultimate decision regarding the purchase and sale of investments.

Additional information about our services can be found in ADV Part 2A, Items 4 and 7. [...]

What fees will I pay?

We charge a fixed fee for portfolio management and financial planning services. These fees are assessed on an annual basis (in November for the upcoming year), in advance. We bill 50% of the fee in December, 25% in April and 25% in August. We also charge hourly fees for any additional financial planning work not included in the fixed fee. Hourly fees are due immediately after the service is completed.

Examples of the most common fees and costs applicable to retail investors include custodian fees, account maintenance fees, fees related to mutual funds and variable annuities, and other transactional fees and product-level fees.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

Please refer to firm's ADV Part 2, Item 5 for additional information regarding our fees. [...]

How do your financial professionals make money?

All financial professionals are compensated on a salary basis. Salary increases occur as various tests are passed and designations are received. They also have an increase in salary based on tenure and being able to hold meetings on their own. As leadership and management skills are recognized, opportunities for ownership can be offered. [...]
