NOTICE OF PRIVACY POLICY

Protecting your privacy is important to us. We collect and use “nonpublic personal information” in order to provide you with financial services and products as effectively and conveniently as possible. We are providing you with the following privacy notice so that you may have a full understanding of the type of information we collect from you and how that information is handled.

Nonpublic Personal Information We Collect

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms such as your personal financial information, name, address, date of birth and social security number;
- Information about your transactions with us or others;
- Information we receive from you through telephone, mail or e-mail inquiries; and
- Information we may receive from non-affiliated third parties.

Parties to Whom We Disclose Information

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our current or former customers to any non-affiliated third parties, except with prior consent or as permitted by law. By law, we may share all of the above-described information with non-affiliated third parties in order to service customer accounts. The types of entities we may share information with include custodians, other investment advisers, certain broker-dealers, and other service providers.

Our Security Procedures

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information and only allow disclosures to persons and companies as permitted by law to assist in providing products and services to customers. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard your nonpublic personal information.
