OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Your advisor makes investment decisions for clients. Where permitted by law, your advisor may receive mutual fund 12b-1 fees, service fees, due diligence fees, marketing reimbursements, or other payments relating to your investment(s) in or otherwise supporting your advisor's activities regarding the securities and insurance products recommended, purchased, or held in your investment advisory program. You should be aware that these fees, payments, and other compensation present a conflict of interest because your advisor may have a greater incentive to recommend those investment advisory products or programs or make investment decisions regarding investments that provide such additional compensation to your advisor.

Insurance Agency Affiliations

Jon Travis Ronk is also a licensed insurance professional. Implementations of insurance recommendations are separate and apart from Jon Travis Ronk's role with Apollon. As an insurance professional, Jon Travis Ronk receives customary commissions and other related revenues from the various insurance companies whose products are sold. Jon Travis Ronk is not required to offer the products of any particular insurance company. Commissions generated by insurance sales do not offset regular advisory fees.
