Adding Perspective to Numbers

Spencer joined KuhnDillonUmbaugh in 2018 after nearly four years with a public accounting firm in Michigan City, IN where he specialized in corporate and partnership tax returns. Spencer was raised on the family farm in LaCrosse and now resides in Valparaiso. A graduate of the Miller College of Business at Ball State University, Spencer passed his CPA exam in 2015 and met his professional experience requirement in January of 2017.

In his spare time, Spencer is a huge Cubs fan and also closely follows the Bears, Blackhawks, and Notre Dame football. He also enjoys standup comedy and is an avid comic book fan and reader. Spencer also spends his free time working out and competing in rec league sports like softball and volleyball.

“The most important thing about my job is seeing how the work I provide affects the clients on a personal level. It’s easy to get lost in the numbers, but it’s critical to remember that the work I’m providing is helping our clients.” – Spencer Schafer
