Adding Perspective to Numbers

Justin was born and raised in Plymouth and received his degree in accounting and finance from Valparaiso University. He started his accounting career in 2007 with a local CPA firm and joined Kuhn Dillon Umbaugh as a partner in 2013.

Proud of his Plymouth roots, Justin is active in the Plymouth community serving on the board of several local organizations. He a member and past president of Plymouth Rotary; board member of the Professional Advisors Committee for the Marshall County Community Foundation; member of the United Way board; and serves as the finance chair of Trinity United Methodist Church in Plymouth.

Justin resides in Plymouth with his son Isaiah and daughter Willow. For recreation Justin enjoys spending time with his large and very close family in Plymouth.

"Every day here is a new challenge. It's never boring serving our clients. One day we're working on payroll, the next a corporate tax return and the next day we're doing an individual's 1040 return." - Justin H. Kuhn
