Certified Financial Planner (CFP®)

Mr. Carter is certified for financial planning services in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. ("CFP Board"). The CFP® certification is voluntary. No federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold the CFP® certification. You may find more information about the CFP® certification at www.cfp.net. CFP® professionals have met CFP Board's high standards for education, examination, experience, and ethics. To become a CFP® professional, an individual must fulfill the following requirements:

• Education – Earn a bachelor's degree or higher from an accredited college or university and complete CFP Board-approved coursework at a college or university through a CFP Board Registered Program. The coursework covers the financial planning subject areas CFP Board has determined are necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, as well as a comprehensive financial plan development capstone course. A candidate may satisfy some of the coursework requirement through other qualifying credentials.

- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination is designed to assess an individual's ability to integrate and apply a broad base of financial planning knowledge in the context of real-life financial planning situations.
- Experience – Complete 6,000 hours of professional experience related to the personal financial planning process, or 4,000 hours of apprenticeship experience that meets additional requirements.
- Ethics – Satisfy the Fitness Standards for Candidates for CFP® Certification and Former CFP® Professionals Seeking Reinstatement and agree to be bound by CFP Board's Code of Ethics and Standards of Conduct ("Code and Standards"), which sets forth the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements to remain certified and maintain the right to continue to use the CFP Board Certification Marks:

- Ethics – Commit to complying with CFP Board's Code and Standards. This includes a commitment to CFP Board, as part of the certification, to act as a fiduciary, and therefore, act in the best interests of the client, at all times when providing financial advice and financial planning. CFP Board may sanction a CFP® professional who does not abide by this commitment, but CFP Board does not guarantee a CFP® professional's services. A client who seeks a similar commitment should obtain a written engagement that includes a fiduciary obligation to the client.
- Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education every two years to maintain competence, demonstrate specified levels of knowledge, skills, and abilities, and keep up with developments in financial planning. Two of the hours must address the Code and Standards.

Chartered Financial Consultant® (ChFC®)

The ChFC® designation is offered by The American College. Designation holders are required to serve clients with the highest level of professionalism. The authority to use the ChFC® mark is granted by the Certification Committee of the Board of Trustees of The American College, and that privilege is contingent on adherence to strict ethical guidelines. All ChFC® advisors are required to do the same for clients that they would do for themselves in similar circumstances, the standard of ethical behavior most beneficial for their clients. Each ChFC® has taken 9 or more college-level courses on all aspects of financial planning. The average study time for the program is over 400 hours, and advisors frequently spend years earning this coveted distinction. Each ChFC® must also complete a minimum of 30 hours of continuing education every two years and must meet extensive experience requirements to ensure that you get the professional financial advice you need.

Certified Investment Management Analyst (CIMA®):

The CIMA® certification signifies that an individual has met initial and on-going experience, ethical, education, and examination requirements for investment management consulting. The designation is administered through Investment Management Consultants Association ("IMCA"). Prerequisites for the CIMA® certification are 3 years of financial services experience and an acceptable regulatory history. To obtain the CIMA® certification, candidates must pass an online Qualification Examination, successfully complete a one-week classroom education program provided by a Registered Education Provider, pass an online Certification Examination, and have an acceptable regulatory history. CIMA® designees are required to adhere to IMCA's Code of Professional Responsibility, Standards of Practice, and Rules and Guidelines for Use of the Marks. CIMA® designees must report 40 hours of continuing education credits, including 2 ethics hours, every 2 years to maintain the certification.

Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy® (CAP®):

The CAP® certification is a graduate-level program offered by The American College. The CAP® program provides designees the tools needed to help clients reach both financial and philanthropic goals.

Certified Digital Asset Advisor (CDAA)

The Certified Digital Asset Advisor designation is awarded to financial professionals who have taken and passed the required coursework around cryptocurrency and digital asset education.

Item 3: Disciplinary Information

Mr. Carter has no history of any legal or disciplinary events that deems to be material to a client's consideration of Brice Carter to act as their investment adviser representative. FINRA's BrokerCheck® may have additional information regarding the disciplinary history of Mr. Carter that is not included in this brochure supplement.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Mr. Carter is an insurance agent under the licensed insurance entity FSG Insurance Agency, a separate and affiliated entity under common ownership. In such capacity, he offers fixed insurance products to clients and receives normal and customary commissions and trails as a result of any purchases of insurance products made by clients. The potential for receipt of commissions and other compensation gives him an incentive to recommend insurance products based on the compensation received, rather than on the client's needs. To address this, disclosure is made to the client at the time purchase is made, identifying the nature of the transaction or relationship, the role to be played and any compensation (e.g., commissions, trails) to be paid by the client and/or received by the insurance agent. He will at all times act in the best interest of his clients and act as a fiduciary in carrying out services to clients. It should be noted that the client is under no obligation to purchase insurance products through Mr. Carter. Brice Carter serves as Managing Member of FSG Insurance Agency.

Brice Carter is managing member of BBB Consulting Services, LLC ("BBB") a commonly owned entity. BBB provides financial consulting services to individuals in the financial services industry. BBB and FSG have entered into an agreement with Fidelity, which provides that from time to time BBB may refer investment advisers, adviser firms, financial advisers and broker-dealers to Fidelity. If Fidelity enters into an agreement with such referred persons, Fidelity will pay BBB a percentage based on the assets under management and/or the revenue collected by the Fidelity from these referred persons. Mr. Carter receives payments from BBB as income. This relationship presents a conflict of interest with his investment advisory clients. To address this conflict, these referral fees to BBB will be disclosed to such persons prior to entering into an agreement with Fidelity.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

Mr. Carter has additional business activities where compensation is received as detailed in Item 4 above. This compensation is in addition to the advisory fees.

Item 6: Supervision

Brice Carter is supervised through a compliance program designed to prevent and detect violations of the federal and state securities laws. Supervision is conducted by the Chief Compliance Officer, Kristin Prieur, who is responsible for administering the policies and procedures. Kristin Prieur reviews those policies and procedures annually for their adequacy and the effectiveness of their implementation. All policies and procedures of the firm are followed. Kristin Prieur can be reached at (517) 347-4337.
