

Privacy Policy

Milestone Financial Planning, LLC (“MFP”) is committed to maintaining the confidentiality, integrity and security of your personal information.

By using our website and/or our services, you consent to the data practices described in this Policy. We may make changes to this Privacy Policy by posting an updated version of the Privacy Policy on our website. It is your responsibility to review the Privacy Policy frequently and remain informed about any changes to it, so we encourage you to visit the Privacy Policy location of our website often.

The Information We Use:

If you are a client, we may obtain such information as your name, social security number, mailing address, email address, phone number, date of birth, banking account numbers, and credit card or other payment information, as needed to provide our services to you.

We may use this information to:

- Administer and update your account(s) and/or project(s) and/or requested service(s);
- Verify your identity and protect against fraud;
- Provide the services you request; and

We may disclose this information to our service providers who help us provide our services (including but not limited to information technology consultants and compliance professionals). We also may disclose this information:

- In accordance with your express instructions or consent of your authorized representative;
- To carry out transactions requested by you; and
- As otherwise required by law.

In addition, with your permission, we also disclose limited information to attorneys, accountants, and mortgage lenders with whom you have established a relationship. With your permission, we share a limited amount of information about you with your brokerage firm in order to execute securities transactions on your behalf.

We do not provide your personal information to mailing list vendors or solicitors.

Federal and state securities regulators may review our company records and your personal records as required by law.
