

SAM DREHER, TOM VELEVIS & MICHAEL WHITE

INVESTMENT ADVISORS

Sam Dreher, Tom Velevis and Michael White are three guys with no ties. Yes, they approach investment management in a casual, comfortable setting, but more importantly they have no ties or conflict of interests because they operate on a Fee-Only™ basis. Simply put, they do not receive commissions on investments, so you can be confident that their interests are aligned with yours.

25 years ago, Sam Dreher founded H.S Dreher Capital Management, LLC as an independent, Registered Investment Advisory firm to serve the investment needs of retirees and those planning for retirement in an objective and conflict-free way.

Tom Velevis, CFP® is the firm's Managing Principal. As a Certified Financial Planner practitioner, he has helped the firm evolve to provide a comprehensive approach to its clients' planning needs, continuing Sam's mission to give investors a fiduciary alternative to the large financial services companies.

Tom has met the requirements and earned the right to be called a NAPFA-Registered Financial Advisor. As a member of the National Association of Personal Financial Advisors (NAPFA), it's all about putting the client first. The goal is to always preserve and grow your wealth.

Michael White joined the team as an Investment Associate and is focused on new client engagements and portfolio management. His role is essential to making certain that all client portfolios are well-diversified and rebalanced regularly.
