

Introduction

PacWealth (referred to as “we” or “us”) is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) as an investment adviser. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ, and it is important for you to understand these differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at www.investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We offer investment advisory services to retail investors. We provide asset management services where we manage your investments after we work with you to understand your financial situation, goals, objectives and risk tolerance. We also offer financial planning and consulting services. When managing accounts, we primarily use mutual funds, exchange-traded funds (ETFs), and individual equities and bonds. We monitor your account on a quarterly basis and we review mutual fund and ETFs on at least semi-monthly. We manage accounts on a discretionary or non-discretionary basis. If you select discretionary, we will buy/sell securities in your account when we determine it is necessary. This means that we do not consult with you prior to trading. If you select non-discretionary, we will recommend transactions to you, but you will make the ultimate decision regarding the purchase or sale of investments. You provide us with trading authority in our advisory agreement and it remains in place until you or we terminate our relationship. For financial planning services we do not provide ongoing monitoring and we do not have discretion over your assets. We have a $250,000 minimum account size for asset management services for retail investors; however, we do make exceptions.

Additional information about our investment advisory services is available in our Form ADV Part 2A Investment Advisor Brochure (see Items 4 and 7). If you are viewing a paper version of this form, please visit pacwealth.com/CRS for a hyperlink to this document.

➤ QUESTIONS TO ASK YOUR FINANCIAL PROFESSIONAL:

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

We charge an asset-based advisory fee that is a percentage of your account, including your cash holdings. Our fees are negotiable. We charge advisory fees quarterly in advance, and you pay us this fee even if there are no transactions in your account. We have an incentive to increase the value of your account over time which will increase our fees over time. For financial planning and consulting services, we charge a fixed fee or an hourly fee that is determined at the time you hire us.

The custodian that holds your assets will charge you a transaction charge when we buy or sell an investment for you. These transaction charges are in addition to our advisory fee. If we engage in frequent trading, you will pay more in transaction charges and this will negatively impact your account performance and increase the overall cost of your account. You will also incur, as applicable, charges imposed by the custodian or another third-party including, but not limited to: custodian fees; retirement account maintenance fees; fees related to mutual funds and exchange-traded funds; and other transactional fees and product-level fees.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

Additional information about fees and expenses is available in our Form ADV Part 2A Investment Advisor Brochure (see Item 5). If you are viewing a paper version of this form, please visit pacwealth.com/CRS for a hyperlink to this document.

➤ QUESTIONS TO ASK YOUR FINANCIAL PROFESSIONAL:

- Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means.

Certain of our financial professionals are also licensed as insurance agents. These financial professionals may sell insurance and receive commissions when selling insurance separate from offering investment advice through us. This is a conflict of interest if the financial professional recommends that you purchase insurance which results in a commission being paid to the financial professional.

There is a conflict of interest regarding rollovers if you are a participant in an employer-sponsored retirement plan and request help from us when deciding whether to liquidate and withdraw funds from your plan and rollover the proceeds into an IRA. A conflict exists because we will only be compensated if you rollover the proceeds into an account that we manage. Therefore, we have a financial incentive to recommend one option over another.

Additional information about our conflicts of interest is available in our Form ADV Part 2A Investment Advisor Brochure. If you are viewing a paper version of this form, please visit pacwealth.com/CRS for a hyperlink to this document.
