

Matt Ko, CFA®

---

March 21, 2019

Matthew Ko is a vice president of T. Rowe Price Associates, Inc., and a portfolio specialist in the Multi-Asset Division. He is the proxy portfolio manager for the suite of target allocation funds and strategies and communicates the firm's global capital markets outlook and asset allocation viewpoints. Prior to joining the firm in 2017, Matt was an investment director for Putnam Investments, where he was the primary liaison between portfolio managers, research analysts, and clients, serving as the voice of the company and the investment team. Additionally, Matt was responsible for representing Putnam Investment's leading equity products. He also worked alongside the product management team to further develop and launch new products. Matt earned a B.B.A. in finance from James Madison University. He also has earned the Chartered Financial Analyst designation and is a member of the CFA Society of Washington, D.C.