Your answers are compared by the vendor to the information available from these sources.

You may be asked questions about yourself, people you know or were once associated with, places you have lived or worked, and the like. The information used in these questions is not related in any way to the information on the specific account(s) held at your financial organization.

ONE-TIME PASSCODE FAQ

What is a One-Time Passcode?

Clients who are either locked out of NetXInvestor or who have forgotten their password can request a One-Time Passcode and reset their password. This replaces the process of answering security questions and provides an additional layer of security.

When logging into NetXInvestor, instead of answering security questions, clients can request a One-Time Passcode to authenticate their device. They can then select to remember the device and avoid having to enter a One-Time Passcode or answer security questions each time they log in.

What are the benefits of One-Time Passcode?

One-Time Passcode allows clients the ability to regain access to their accounts any time of the day. One-Time Passcodes are delivered instantly and securely directly to clients.

Do clients need to enter a One-Time Passcode each time they log in to NetXInvestor?

No. Following their first log in with a One-Time Passcode, they will be presented with a “remember this device” box. By checking this box the device will be remembered and as long as they log in from the same device they will not need to enter a new One-Time Passcode.

How are One-Time Passcodes sent?

A One-Time Passcode is sent to the client via either voice or text message. As part of the One-Time Passcode set up process, clients will choose a contact method to identify how they will receive the passcode.

For clients that do not have a cell phone, choosing to send the code via voice message will also work on a land line phone.

How is a One-Time Passcode set up?

Please review Self Registration section for detailed steps on setting up a One-Time Passcode.

Why does One-Time Passcode ask to verify a client's identity?

An initial step in setting up of One-Time Passcode will ask to verify the client's identity. This is an important step Pershing takes to protect the security of clients and their assets.

How long is a requested One-Time Passcode valid?

One-Time Passcodes are sent to a client immediately after being requested. The requested passcode is then valid for 30 minutes. If a client requests multiple passcodes during that time they will be sent the same passcode each time and those additional requested codes will only be valid for 30 minutes from when the first code sent.

Clients can request the passcode up to five times during the 30 minutes. If a passcode is requested five times in 30 minutes and no attempt to enter the passcode is made, as an extra security precaution the ability to request more codes will be suspended for ten minutes.

What happens in the One-Time Passcode is entered incorrectly?

If entered incorrectly three times, the account will be locked and you will need to contact the Resource Center for assistance.

What phone number will One-Time Passcode calls come from if the client selects the “voice” option?

Upon selection of the “voice” one-time passcode method a phone call will be placed to the clients preferred number. This automated call will be made from 888-878-3142.

What if a client is experiencing issues with One-Time Passcode?

If a client is having issues with One-Time Passcode when logging into NetXInvestor, use the following troubleshooting tips as a guide.

- Access internet options within their internet browser. Delete all temporary internet files, history, and cookies. Verify that “Delete browsing history on exit?” box is unchecked.
- Delete any old bookmarks to NetXInvestor sites that may exist.
- Close their internet browser, then open a new window.
- Enter in the address bar
- Save and favorite the page as a new bookmark
- Enter login ID and click Continue. They will need to select a delivery method to receive a One-Time Passcode (voice or text message).
- Follow the prompts and then enter the One-Time Passcode received via voice or text.
- Once verified, they will be prompted to enter their password to log in successfully. It is important to make sure the continue remembering this device box is check to prevent needing a One-Time Passcode for each login.

What if a client wants to use Security Questions instead of One-Time Passcode when accessing their account?

We strongly suggest clients utilize One-Time passcode to securely access their account from public devices or to regain their account access if locked out. Should a client request to move back to security questions, please have them call the Voya Financial Advisors Resource Center. The VFA Resource Center can make this change over the phone on a person by person basis.
