None

Item 4. Other Business Activities

The financial advisor is engaged in offering insurance and insurance products as an insurance agent. A portion of his time each week is dedicated to insurance and insurance sales, and he can earn commissions when acting in this separate capacity.

Your financial advisor may also be a registered representative with Securities America, Inc., a full service broker/dealer, member FINRA/SIPC. Securities America, Inc. and Arbor Point Advisors, LLC are affiliated entities. In this separate capacity, your financial advisor may recommend to clients the purchase and sale of securities products and receive commissions when doing so. A portion of your financial advisor's workweek is dedicated to securities and securities sales.

In addition to the advisory fees disclosed along with your client agreement, your financial advisor may receive compensation, including bonuses and non-cash compensation, for selling certain securities or other investment products. As a result, certain incentives and conflicts of interest may exist for your financial advisor if you buy certain recommended products or services.

Conflicts of interest may arise in the course of providing investment management services to you and the financial advisor's other financial industry activities. These potential conflicts of interest are described in this Supplemental Brochure. To the extent we cannot prevent actual or potential conflicts, we will take reasonable steps to mitigate them and, at a minimum, disclose them to you.

Item 5. Additional Compensation

The financial advisor may have an incentive to join and remain with Securities America, Inc. and/or Arbor Point Advisors, LLC through certain compensation arrangements which could include bonuses, enhanced pay-outs, forgivable loans and/or business transaction loans. There can be production goals associated with your financial advisor recommending a transaction, and receiving compensation from a recommendation can be considered a conflict of interest. Clients are encouraged to read the Arbor Point Advisors, LLC Form ADV Part 2A Disclosure Brochure and discuss any potential conflicts of interest with their financial advisor.

Securities America can issue payments in the form of loans to its representatives which can be forgivable based on years of service or production. This practice can create a conflict of interest because the representative can have a financial incentive to recommend clients engage Arbor Point Advisors, LLC for advisory services in order for the loan to be forgiven. Your financial advisor will obtain financial data from you and assist you in setting appropriate investment objectives. Arbor Point Advisors, LLC periodically reviews advisory accounts to ensure suitability and adherence to client investment objectives. Clients are encouraged to consult with their financial advisor if they have questions regarding this issue.

The financial advisor can receive bonuses or non-cash compensation relating to the promotion or sale of a program sponsor's products or services. These program sponsors may pay for training, education or prospective events such as seminars, for due diligence and travel expenses to these events and can occasionally provide business entertainment or gifts of nominal value to financial advisors.

Your financial advisor can receive referral fees for referring a client or prospective client to APA or third party investment advisor.

Incentive programs and cash/non-cash compensation are strictly regulated by the SEC, FINRA and Securities America compliance policies.

While such compensation is typically limited and governed by SAI policy and industry rules, receipt of such compensation may give the financial advisory an incentive to recommend investment products.

Item 6. Supervision

Your financial advisor's activities are supervised by one or more individuals working in the financial advisor's office and/or a member of APA's supervision team. The supervisor provides ongoing training and support to your financial advisor and answers questions about providing financial planning or investment advice to clients. The supervisor also reviews the financial advisor's activities through APA's client relationship management system, business submission reviews, e-mail monitoring and correspondence reviews. The person responsible for supervising the financial advisor's advisory activities, Roman Zharov, Regional Sales Supervision Principal, can be reached at 800-747-6111.
