REAL ESTATE / PROPERTY INSURANCE ISSUES	YES	NO
Did you buy or sell a house or vacation property? If so, review existing and new insurance carriers to see if there is a benefit to changing insurance carriers.	☐	☐
Does your homeowner's insurance cover less than 80% of the home's replacement value? If so, increase the coverage limit as the insurance carrier may not fully cover the cost of damage caused by an insured event. The insurance company may only cover a proportionate amount of the loss.	☐	☐
Have you made substantial capital improvements to the property (such as a swimming pool, addition, or renovation)? If so, consider the following: ■ Check that your insurance covers a minimum of 80% of the replacement value of the house. ■ Additional liability protection may be needed.	☐	☐
Has the value of the property increased substantially since the last time you reviewed your homeowner's coverage? If so, consider checking that your insurance covers a minimum of 80% of the replacement value of the property.	☐	☐
Do you need to add (or make the insurance carrier aware of) smoke detectors, security systems, and fire extinguishers? If so, consider the discount you may receive by having those listed on your homeowner's policy.	☐	☐
Have you reviewed changing the deductible? If so, this could decrease (or increase) your premium.	☐	☐
Do you own a condominium? If so, consider if there are any gaps in the condo association's master policy and your condo policy. The condo association bylaws may specify what types of coverage you should purchase. (continue on next column)	☐	☐

REAL ESTATE / PROPERTY INSURANCE ISSUES (CONTINUED)	YES	NO
Do you pay rent to live in your residence? If so, consider purchasing renter's insurance if you don't already have coverage, or review limits and deductibles if you already have coverage.	☐	☐
Do you own real estate that you rent to tenants? If so, consider the following: ■ Review property and liability protection to ensure it is adequate. ■ Additional coverage may be needed to cover vandalism and loss of rent due to a covered event. ■ If liability protection is a primary concern, consider the possible use of an LLC.	☐	☐

AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE ISSUES	YES	NO
Did you purchase (or sell) an automobile? If so, review existing and new insurance carriers to see if there is a benefit to changing insurance carriers.	☐	☐
Is your collision and comprehensive coverage adequate considering the value of the automobile?	☐	☐
Have you reviewed changing the deductible, which could decrease (or increase) your premium?	☐	☐
Do you have any children on your auto policy? If so, consider the following: ■ Check to see if you are eligible for any good student discounts. ■ If you have a part-time driver (such as a college student), you may be eligible for a discount. ■ Check to see at what age they will be required to leave your policy.	☐	☐

Do you need to review your insurance company? If so, check to see if there are any bundling discounts and if there have been any changes to their rating.	☐	☐
Do you need to review your identity theft insurance? If so, consider reviewing the benefits offered by credit cards and homeowners insurance, as you may already have coverage.	☐	☐
Do you own a business? If so, consider the following: ■ Review your Buy-Sell Agreements and the insurance needs for business continuation.
