

PRIVACY POLICY

Privacy Statement

It is the objective of Keen Wealth Advisors to hold all personal information provided by current, prospective, and former clients in the strictest confidence and to protect the privacy of all parties. To be able to provide accurate and efficient services, we must collect and maintain certain personal information about you. We want you to know what information we collect and how we use and safeguard that information.

Information Collected

The types of personal information we collect, and share can include:

- Name, Address, and Date of Birth
- Social Security Number
- Investment Experience, Income, and Risk Tolerance
- Assets and Account Transactions

Why We Collect and How We Use Information

To conduct regular business, we may collect personal information from sources such as:

- Information we receive from you on account applications, such as your address, date of birth, Social Security Number, assets, and income
- Information about your transactions with our firm or others
- Information developed as part of financial plans, analyses or investment advisory services

To administer and manage your accounts it is necessary for us to provide access to client information within the firm and with nonaffiliated companies we have entered into agreements with. To provide you with the highest level of service, we may disclose information regarding clients and former clients to these companies to perform certain services on our behalf, such as:

- To protect your accounts from unauthorized access or identity theft;
- To process your requests such as securities purchases and sales;
- To establish or maintain an account with an unaffiliated third party, such as a clearing broker-dealer providing services to you and/or Keen Wealth Advisors;
- To service your accounts, such as by issuing checks and account statements;
- To keep you informed about financial services topics of interest to you.

Sharing Information with Other Companies as Permitted by Law

We do not share any of the above referenced nonpublic personal information about our current, prospective, or former clients to nonaffiliated parties unless it is deemed necessary to administer, manage, and service our clients' accounts or as permitted to do so by law. If required by law, we may provide client information outside of the firm to government entities, consumer reporting agencies, or other third parties in response to subpoenas or other legal process as required by law or to comply with regulatory inquiries. Additionally, we do not jointly market with affiliated or nonaffiliated companies.

Our Security Policy

In order to protect current, prospective, and former client's nonpublic personal information, we maintain physical, electronic, and procedural security measures to safeguard confidential client information. We also restrict access about you to those individuals who need to know that information to provide products or services to you and perform their respective duties.

Former Clients

Even if you decide to close your account(s) with us, our Privacy Policy will continue to apply to you, and we will continue to treat your nonpublic information with strict confidentiality.

Changes to this Policy

We will provide each client with initial notice of the current Privacy Policy when the client relationship is established. If we make any substantial changes in the way we use or disseminate confidential information, we will notify you.

We encourage you to check our website (www.keenwealthadvisors.com) to see when this Privacy Policy was last revised and to be informed of how we are committed to protecting your information.

Questions

Any questions regarding this Privacy Policy may be directed to Leslie Penka, Chief Compliance Officer at lpenka@keenwealthadvisors.com or 913-624-1841.