Paragon Financial Services, Advisor, July 2012 – November 2017

Commonwealth Financial Network, Registered Advisor, July 2012 – November 2017

Educational Background:

University of California, Davis, Bachelor of Business Administration, Graduated: 1998

Relevant Designations:

CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ Practitioner (CFP®)

This program is sponsored by the CFP Board of Standards. Before applying for the CFP® Certification Examination, you need to meet the six course education requirements (or their equivalent) as set by CFP Board as well as a financial plan development course registered with CFP Board. Additionally, a bachelor's degree (or higher), or its equivalent, in any discipline, from an accredited college or university is required to attain CFP® certification. Additional requirements include successful completion of the CFP® Certification Examination, which tests your ability to apply your financial planning knowledge to client situations. The 10-hour exam is divided into three separate sessions. Because of the integrated nature of financial planning, however, each session may cover all topic areas (personal financial planning, risk management, income taxes, investments, retirement planning, and estate planning). In addition to the education requirements, there is an experience requirement, which is currently at least three years of qualifying full-time work experience in personal financial planning. There are additional requirements for candidates and registrants to pass Fitness Standards and a Background Check and to agree to abide by CFP Board's Code of Ethics and Professional Responsibility, Rules of Conduct and Financial Planning Practice Standards. Certificants must continue to meet continuing education requirements which presently include obtaining 30 hours of continuing education in selected subjects every two calendar years, including a two-hour CFP Ethics course. For more details, see www.cfp.net.

CERTIFIED FUND SPECIALIST™ (CFS™)

A certified fund specialist (CFS™) has received a certification from the Institute of Business and Finance (IBF) for their expertise in mutual funds and the mutual fund industry. Requirements for the designation include passing the certified fund specialist exam. The certified fund specialist exam is one of the oldest certification designations in the mutual fund industry.

- A certified fund specialist is a financial industry professional certified in providing mutual funds assistance.
- In order to become a certified fund specialist, a certificate must be acquired from the Institute of Business and Finance (IBF).
- Certified fund specialists can be accountants, bankers, brokers, money managers, personal financial advisors, and other professionals within the financial industry.
- In addition to holding a certificate, certified fund specialists must fulfill 30 hours of education every two years.
- Before taking the exam, a prospective CFS must have a bachelor's degree or 2,000 hours of work experience in the financial services industry and have completed the IBF self-study program consisting of six modules.

ACCREDITED INVESTMENT FIDUCIARY (AIF®)

The AIF is currently offered and recognized by the Center for Fiduciary Studies. To obtain this certification the candidate must meet a point-based threshold based on a combination of education, relevant industry experience and/or professional development. The candidate completes a program that reviews the fundamentals of fiduciary responsibility, formalizing and implementing an investment strategy and monitoring investment results. A final certification exam must be passed and 6 hours of annual continuing education are needed to maintain.
