

Item 1 – Introduction: Is an investment advisory account right for you?

Wildes Financial Strategies, Inc. is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an investment adviser. Please be aware that brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ and that it is important for you to understand the differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

Item 2 – What investment services and advice can you provide me?

We offer investment advisory services to retail investors. Our services include Portfolio Management Services and stand-alone Financial Planning and Consulting Services. Our firm is a Sponsor and Manager of a Wrap Fee Program where our portfolio management services consist of continuous and regular supervisory and management services with respect to your account(s). If you open an investment account with our firm, we will monitor your investments on an ongoing basis and will review your account at least annually. We manage investment accounts on a discretionary basis where we will decide which investments to buy or sell for your account. In our sole discretion, we may accept instructions from you that limit our discretionary authority (for example, limiting the types of securities that can be purchased or sold for your account). We offer advice on most types of investments and products including, but not limited to: equity securities, mutual funds, exchange traded funds, bonds, annuities, and closed-end funds. Additionally, we may advise you on various types of investments based on your stated goals and objectives. In general, we do not require a minimum dollar amount to open and maintain an advisory account; however, we have the right to terminate your account if it falls below a minimum size which, in our sole opinion, is too small to manage effectively.

Conversation Starters. Ask your financial professional—

- ❖ Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Why or why not?
- ❖ How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- ❖ What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

Item 3 – What fees will I pay?

We are primarily compensated by a percentage of assets under management fee for portfolio management services. Our annual fee is typically payable monthly, in advance, based on the value of the portfolio as of the last business day of the previous month. If you participate in our wrap fee program, you will pay our firm a single fee, which includes money management fees and transaction costs. We receive a portion of the wrap fee for our services. You may pay custodial fees, charges imposed directly by a mutual fund, index fund, or exchange traded fund which shall be disclosed in the fund's prospectus, wire transfer fees and other fees and taxes on brokerage accounts and securities transactions. The overall cost you will incur if you participate in our wrap fee program may be higher or lower than you might incur by separately purchasing the types of securities available in the program. Please refer to our firm's Form ADV Part 2A Appendix 1 for more information. Since our firm pays the transaction costs associated with securities transactions under our wrap fee program, we have an incentive to minimize the trading in your account; however, as a fiduciary we will always act in your best interest. Our fees are negotiable depending upon the complexity and scope of the service, your financial situation, and your objectives. The way we are compensated creates a conflict of interest. The more assets in your investment account, the more fees we collect. As a result, we have the incentive to encourage you to increase the assets held in your account. We provide financial planning and consulting services on an hourly, fixed-fee, or asset-based basis. Our hourly fee is $400, typically due upon completion of services. Fixed fees generally range up to $10,000 though they may be higher for more complex engagements, and are usually payable 50% in advance and 50% upon completion. We also offer ongoing financial planning services for a negotiated fixed fee, generally billed quarterly. For asset-based arrangements, our fee may be up to 1.00% of portfolio or plan assets, payable quarterly in advance or arrears. All fees and fee payment arrangements may be negotiated at our sole discretion based on each client's individual circumstances.

Description of Other Fees and Costs: The broker-dealer or custodian may also charge your account for custodial fees, retirement account fees, trust fees, exchange fees, redemption fees that may be assessed on investment company shares, transfer fees, account termination fees or other special service fees and charges. The wrap program fee does not include mark-ups and mark-downs, dealer spreads or other costs associated with the purchase or sale of securities, interest, taxes, or other costs, such as national securities exchange fees, charges for transactions not executed through the qualified custodian, costs associated with exchanging currencies, wire transfer fees, or other fees required by law or imposed by third parties. Clients will be responsible for these additional fees and expenses. We do not share in any portion of these fees imposed by the broker-dealer, custodian or third-party. To fully understand the total cost you will incur, you should review all the fees charged by investment companies, broker-dealers, our firm, and others. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

Conversation Starter. Ask your financial professional—

- ❖ Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means:

- All investment advisers face conflicts of interest which are inherent in the business. Our source of compensation is through asset-based fees. Therefore, we are financially incentivized to acquire new clients and to increase assets under management.
- Some of our financial professionals are insurance agents, which creates a conflict of interest because these individuals have a financial incentive to sell insurance products and will receive additional commission-based compensation in connection with the purchase and sale of insurance products. You are not required to purchase insurance or securities from our financial professionals.

Conversation Starter. Ask your financial professional—

- ❖ How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?

For additional information, please refer to Items 4 and 5 of Form ADV Part 2A Appendix 1 at the following link:

How do your financial professionals make money?

In general, the financial professionals servicing your account(s) are compensated by salary and may receive a bonus. Certain financial professionals receive commission-based compensation based on the insurance products sold (i.e. differential compensation or commission) in their separate capacity as a licensed insurance agent.

Item 4 – Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?
