Contributions are generally pro-rated for the number of months the individual is enrolled in an HDHP. The contribution deadline is the tax-filing deadline, not including extensions (i.e., April 15th).

HSA Tax Benefits & Advantages

Control	Owned and controlled by the individual, not the employer.
Death of HSA Owner	Spouse beneficiary automatically treated as new HSA owner. Non-spouse beneficiary must include HSA value at death as taxable income, but no 20% penalty.
Distributions	Tax-free for qualified medical expenses of the individual, spouse or dependents. Distributions not used for qualified medical expenses are taxable as ordinary income plus a 20% penalty unless due to death, disability, or age 65+.
Employee/Individual Contributions	Tax deductible as an above-the-line deduction (reduces AGI), regardless of individual's tax-filing status or income.
Employer Contributions	Tax deductible to employer and must be "comparable." Employees do not include employer HSA contributions in income.
Investment Gains	Tax-free, if used for qualified medical expenses.
Portability between HSAs	HSA funds can be rolled over or transferred to another HSA (once-per-year rule and 60-day rule applies to rollovers).
Portability from an IRA	IRA funds cannot be rolled over or transferred to an HSA. There is a one-time exception for a qualified HSA funding distribution (QHFD). HSA funds can never be rolled over to an IRA.
Qualified HSA Funding Distribution	A QHFD is a tax-free direct transfer from an IRA to an HSA. It is a one-time-only transfer from an IRA that is limited to an individual's maximum HSA contribution for the year. Only pre-tax IRA funds can be transferred (exception to the IRA pro-rata rule). Does not apply to ongoing SIMPLE or SEP IRAs. After a QHFD, individual must remain HSA eligible for a 1-year testing period to avoid taxes and penalties.
Use-It-Or-Lose-It Rule	N/A - Unused HSA funds continue to belong to the owner.
