Matt Krull, CFP®

Co-Founder and Chief Investment Officer

Matt Krull currently serves as the Chief Investment Officer at Olympus Wealth Management. He manages and seeks to preserve wealth for high-net-worth and ultra-high-net-worth clients. He is chairman of Olympus Wealth Management's Investment Committee and is actively involved with constructing asset allocations, managing portfolios, manager selection and manager due diligence across both liquid and illiquid investments. Mr. Krull was also the firm's Chief Compliance Officer from 2017-2020.

Mr. Krull has over 20 years of experience working with wealthy families. Prior to co-founding Olympus Wealth Management, Mr. Krull was the Market Director for Investment Services at J.P. Morgan Chase in Utah. Mr. Krull was initially hired by J.P. Morgan's Private Bank as an investment specialist and spent time coordinating and managing client liquidity events. Prior to joining J.P. Morgan, Mr. Krull was promoted through several positions with Bank of America's Private Bank in Charlottesville, Virginia. Mr. Krull began his career with Fidelity Investments where he gained extensive experience trading stocks, bonds, mutual funds, options and international securities.

Mr. Krull is currently serving on the Mountain Sky United Methodist Foundation's Board of Directors, the Mountain Sky United Methodist Foundation's Investment Committee and Hilltop United Methodist Church's Endowment Fund Committee. He was named 40 Under 40 by Utah Business Magazine and participated in the Salt Lake Chamber of Commerce Leadership Utah Program. On the weekends, Matt enjoys running, skiing or climbing in the Wasatch Mountains of Utah with his wife and two daughters.
