Version 2 for Kris' LinkedIn Profile:

I was recently recognized by Five Star Professionals as the 2018 recipient of the Five Star Wealth Manager Award for the seventh consecutive year. It would be short-sighted not to see this award as a team effort. Our industry-leading team of advisors and financial professionals at American Portfolios Denver truly embody much of what we value and present to our clients day in and day out. It's through their effort and support that I'm able to create much of the impact that results in this award. Thank you to our team for amazing me with your dedication, servant's heart, and commitment to excellence.

I also recognize that receiving this award for seven consecutive years is a testament to those who trained, mentored, and empowered me over the years in this profession. If I have seen farther, it is because I truly am standing on the shoulders of giants before me. Thank you to the many mentors, colleagues, and even clients who saw in me a desire to serve others well and embrace the nuanced responsibility of managing wealth with the greatest care.

The future is bright with our team at American Portfolios Denver. We are actively recruiting experienced, driven financial professionals who are hungry to make a difference in the lives of investors across the Rocky Mountain region. If you believe you may be a great fit for our team, let's start a conversation today. Connect with me here on LinkedIn to learn more about what's on the horizon with American Portfolios Denver.
