2023 · WHAT ISSUES SHOULD I CONSIDER IF MY PARENT PASSED AWAY?

CASH FLOW ISSUES	YES	NO
<ul> <li>Was your parent married when they passed away? If so, consider the following:</li> <li>If your parent was receiving Social Security benefits, their surviving spouse may be eligible for survivor benefits.</li> <li>If the surviving spouse is receiving a government pension based on earnings that were never subjected to Social Security taxes, they may be subject to the Government Pension Offset.</li> </ul>
Did your parent reach their Required Beginning Date, or were they taking an RMD (from an inherited IRA) at the time of their death? If so, the beneficiary(ies) must satisfy any remaining RMD amount on behalf of your parent before the end of the year.
Was your parent receiving a pension? If so, payments may stop or, if your parent was married, be adjusted for survivor benefits.
ESTATE SETTLEMENT ISSUES	YES	NO
Do any accounts or other assets require ownership to be updated?

	ESTATE SETTLEMENT ISSUES (CONTINUED)	YES	NO
	■ If your parent was married, to maintain portability of unused exemption, the estate must file IRS Form 706 (even if a 706 is not otherwise required). If a 706 is filed only to elect portability, it is due within five years of the date of death.
	If there is an estate tax liability, was the total value of the estate on the date of death greater than the value at six months after the date of death? If so, you may elect on Form 706 to use the alternate valuation date to reduce estate taxes, valuing all assets as of six months after the date of death (unless sold within that period).
	<ul> <li>Could there be property and assets not yet identified? If so, consider the following:         <ul> <li>Look at the "points" feature on credit cards and "miles" with airlines to see if they are transferable.</li> <li>Check for safe deposit boxes but be sure to follow probate rules before opening.</li> <li>Search state agencies and unclaimed property sites that are run by many state treasurers.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
   	> Do you expect to inherit any assets from your parent or was your parent included in your own estate plan? If so, consider updating your own estate plan.
) [	> Are there digital assets that should be preserved?
	INSURANCE ISSUES	YES	NO
	> Was your parent employed at the time of death? The employer/ union may provide group life insurance and/or compensation related to their employment.
	<ul> <li>Was the death accidental or work related? If so, consider the following:</li> <li>Some financial institutions and professional associations may offer a small lump-sum benefit.</li> <li>The employer/union may offer additional death benefits.</li> <li>If your parent was married, the spouse may be eligible for worker's compensation and/or death benefits. (continue on next page)</li> </ul>

2023 · WHAT ISSUES SHOULD I CONSIDER IF MY PARENT PASSED AWAY?

INSURANCE ISSUES (CONTINUED)		YES	NO
Some life insurance policies have an ' for higher benefits.	accidental death" provision
Was your parent a veteran? If so, then benefits, a survivor pension, and/or oth	-
Did your parent have a child under a permanently disabled? If so, your par child may be eligible for Social Security	ent's spouse and/or the
Could there be any life insurance ow insuring the life of your parent that claimed?
TAX ISSUES		YES	NO
Did your parent own a home and we spouse? If so, the surviving spouse may $500,000 capital gains housing exclusion two years of your parent's death, and o	y still qualify for the n if the home is sold within
Did your parent own other property investment account? If so, the joint own in basis for assets passing from your particle. Receive A Step-Up In Basis For The App Inherited?" flowchart.	wner may receive a step-up arent. Reference "Will l
> Do you need to confirm that all of yo taxes have been paid? If so, contact the authorities to check if any back taxes an necessary payments.	ne IRS and the state taxing
Did your parent file as Married Filing spouse can continue to file as MFJ in that away.
Was your parent married and did the child? If so, your parent's spouse may be Widow(er) tax filing status for the two to your parent passed away.	be able to use the Qualifying

INVESTMENT & ASSET ISSUES	YES	NO
<ul> <li>Did your parent have stock options, grants, or restricted stock units? If so, consider the following:</li> <li>Check employer plan documents to understand how these assets are treated after your parent's death.</li> <li>Beneficiaries should be aware of potential tax ramifications of accelerated stock vesting.</li> </ul>
Has the change in circumstances altered investment objectives or risk tolerance for family members inheriting assets?
Was your parent married and did they have carryforward investment losses? If so, consider having the surviving spouse realize investment gains in the year of death. Your parent's carryforwards can be used on their final tax return, but will be lost thereafter.
<ul> <li>Did your parent own an annuity? If so, consider the following:         <ul> <li>Your parent's spouse (if applicable) may be able to inherit a non-qualified annuity as their own if they were listed as beneficiary on the policy.</li> <li>A non-spouse beneficiary will have to take required distributions from a non-qualified annuity.</li> <li>Non-qualified annuities do not receive a step-up in basis, so be aware of potential tax ramifications with distributions.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
OTHER ISSUES	YES	NO
Do you need to reduce the threat of identity theft? If so, cancel your parent's email accounts, social media accounts, and driver's license, and notify credit bureaus, the election board, etc.
Are there any state-specific issues that should be considered (including out-of-state property or estate tax liability)?

Southshore Financial Planning LLC is a registered investment adviser offering services in the State of Florida and in other jurisdictions where exempted. Registration does not imply a certain level of skill or training.

This publication is for informational purposes only and is not intended as tax, accounting or legal advice, as an offer or solicitation of an offer to buy or sell, or as an endorsement of any company, security, fund, or other securities or non-securities offering. This publication should not be relied upon as the sole factor in an investment making decision. Past performance is no indication of future results. Investment in securities involves significant risk and has the potential for partial or complete loss of funds invested. It should not be assumed that any recommendations made by the Author, in the future, will be profitable or equal the performance noted in this publication.

All opinions and estimates constitute Southshore Financial Planning LLC's judgment as of the date the information was printed and are subject to change without notice. Southshore Financial Planning LLC does not warrant that the information will be free from error. The information should not be relied upon for purposes of transacting securities or other investments. Your use of the information is at your sole risk. Under no circumstances shall Southshore Financial Planning LLC be liable for any direct, indirect, special or consequential damages that result from the use of, or the inability to use, the information provided herein, even if Southshore Financial Planning LLC or a Southshore Financial Planning LLC authorized representative has been advised of the possibility of such damages.

The information herein is provided "AS IS" and without warranties of any kind either express or implied. To the fullest extent permissible pursuant to applicable laws, Southshore Financial Planning LLC (referred to as "Southshore Financial Planning") disclaims all warranties, express or implied, including, but not limited to, implied warranties of merchantability, non-infringement, and suitability for a particular purpose.

Federal tax advice disclaimer: As required by U.S. Treasury Regulations, you are informed that, to the extent this presentation includes any federal tax advice, the presentation is not written by Southshore Financial Planning LLC to be used, and cannot be used, for the purpose of avoiding federal tax penalties. Use of any information presented by Southshore Financial Planning LLC is for general information only and does not represent individualized tax advice, either express or implied. You are encouraged to seek professional tax advice for income tax guestions and assistance.

Chris Shoup, Southshore Financial Planning LLC

1600 E 8th Ave., Ste. A200, Tampa, FL 33605 chris@southshorefp.com | 813-406-0544 | www.southshorefp.com