Form CRS Customer Relationship Summary November 2020

Introduction

Transitus Wealth Partners, LLC (“TWP”) is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) as an investment adviser. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ and it is important for you to understand these differences. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at www.investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

Individual and Model Portfolio Management Services: TWP manages client investment portfolios on a discretionary or non-discretionary basis allocating client assets among various mutual funds, exchange-traded funds (“ETFs”) and individual debt and equity securities. When engaged on a discretionary basis, we will buy and sell investments in your account as appropriate without requiring your pre-approval on an ongoing basis until you notify us in writing to switch. You may impose reasonable restrictions. When engaged on a non-discretionary basis, you make the ultimate decision regarding the purchase or sale of investments. These accounts are monitored on a quarterly basis. Financial Planning and Consulting Services: TWP offers clients a broad range of services, which may include retirement, education, trust and estate, insurance and tax planning. Pension Consulting Services: TWP provides various negotiated consulting services to qualified employee benefit plans. Each engagement is customized and may include plan design and strategy, plan review and evaluation, executive planning & benefits, investment selection, plan fee and cost analysis, plan committee consultation, fiduciary and compliance, and participant education. These accounts are monitored continuously based on procedures and timing intervals.

Our investment recommendations are not limited to any specific product or service.

Conversation Starters. Ask your financial professional...

- Given my financial situation, should I choose an investment advisory service? Should I choose a brokerage service? Should I choose both types of services? Why or why not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

What fees will I pay?

TWP’s individual and model portfolio management services are charged an annual fee between 0.75% - 1.25% based on the amount of assets under management. The annual fee is charged quarterly, in arrears. A minimum of $400,000 of assets under management is required for this service and may be negotiable. TWP may charge a fixed fee ranging from $300 - $1,000 for providing financial planning and consulting services. These fees are charged in arrears or in advance, depending on the service provided. A fixed account minimum of $2,500 may be charged in lieu of hourly rates. TWP charges a fixed project-based fee of .50% for pension consulting services, in advance. A total minimum fee of $1,000 is required for this service.

Some fee arrangements create conflicts of interest described in more detail in our Form ADV, Part 2A. It is important to understand that the more assets held in a retail client’s account, the more the client will pay in fees. We therefore have an incentive to encourage a client to increase the assets in his/her account. There are other fees and costs related to our investment advisory services and investments in addition to the principal fees and costs listed above that you will pay directly or indirectly. You should understand that the fees discussed above are specific to what we charge and do not include certain charges imposed by third parties, such as custodial fees, exchange traded or mutual fund fees and expenses, brokerage fees and commissions, and other fees and taxes on brokerage accounts and securities transactions.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

For additional information, please see Item 5 of our Form ADV, 2A Brochure (Part 2A) available at: www.transituswealth.com

Conversation Starter. Ask your financial professional...

- Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What are your legal obligations to me when providing recommendations as my broker-dealer or when acting as my investment adviser? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

When we act as your investment adviser, we have to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the recommendations and investment advice we provide you.

For example, the more assets the client has in his/her account, the more we receive in fees. We therefore have an incentive to encourage a client to increase the assets in his/her account. In addition, our minimum account size is negotiable under certain circumstances and at our discretion. Should we agree to waive this minimum account size, we would receive less compensation for services provided. We, therefore, have a disincentive to waive this minimum.

How do your financial professionals make money?

TWP charges fees up front based on account values and reverse/charge fees weekly on any additional assets. Our advisors are paid a base salary and bonus based upon the previous year's revenue and profit. TWP associated persons are insurance agents. Clients should be aware that the receipt of additional compensation by TWP creates a conflict of interest that may impair the objectivity of these individuals when making advisory recommendations. TWP endeavors at all times to put the interest of its clients first as part of our fiduciary duty as a registered investment adviser.

Do your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?
