Past performance may not be indicative of future results. Therefore, no current or prospective client should assume that the future performance of any specific investment or strategy will be profitable or equal to past performance levels. All investment strategies have the potential for profit or loss. Different types of investments involve varying degrees of risk, and there can be no assurance that any specific investment or strategy will be suitable or profitable for a client's portfolio. There are no assurances that a portfolio will match or outperform any particular benchmark.

ZEGA Investments claims compliance with the Global Investment Performance Standards (GIPS®) and has prepared and presented this report in compliance with the GIPS standards. ZEGA has not been independently verified.

Except where specifically identified otherwise, all performance data in this presentation is the performance of the Separate Account Strategy.

Additional Disclosure

While these strategies project both the broad direction of the equity markets and the potential range of any price movements, sudden socio-political, environmental, or economic disasters or upheavals can significantly swing the markets and price ranges in the short term. These signals, therefore, are not intended to be used in the near term for short term trading.

While ZEGA Investments has identified 19 triggers that we believe can signal changes in the markets, there may be other, unknown triggers that we have not accounted for which could significantly skew our results.

Projecting the market's next season

Can a trading signal derived from options market data predict S&P 500 direction and range?

- ❑ The protective, speculative, leveraged natures of equity option markets tell a story
- ❑ Traditionally represented by volatility indexes, ZEGA dove deeper; computing multiple iterations of macro equity market models over 9 years of data
- ❑ ZEGA identified 19 triggers that alone and in combination provide signals that project a change of season
- ❑ Seasonal signals project both the direction of the broad equity market and the potential range of any price movement
- ❑ Portfolios created to potentially capitalize on the identified current "season"

Every day, on average, option trades command U.S. equity notional value in excess of:

$55
Billion

CBOE April 2023*

$55 Billion x 250 trading days x 9 years = $123.7 trillion of potential trading value signals

Portfolios designed to capture the seasons
